

THE OTHER SIDE.

A Member of Company D Answers Mr. Zimmer's Card.

I was startled in my perusal of the DAILY KENTUCKIAN of yesterday's issue, to find "A Card," containing, as was claimed, the true state of affairs of Company D. Words could not express my feelings as glancing down the column, and drinking in the sense of each and every paragraph. I found the citizens of Hopkinsville and the returning members of Company D, so viciously attacked, and I believe without cause and provocation.

Not a single member of Company D has ever been censured by any true American citizen for wanting to do his duty and answering his country's call, for it is but for the "Love of Liberty" which is born into our hearts and minds, and guarded through infancy by our mothers, which, on reaching our manhood demands of us, "answer your country's call." Should we fail to do this, then and in that event we would be censured.

That "love of Liberty," asserted itself in the hearts of those that returned "under the leadership of a disgraced Captain." They demanded the liberty of saying who should be their leader and Captain. This liberty was refused them, and like patriotic sons of America's free born citizens, that they were, they deemed it best to go home where liberty reigned supreme, even if under the disgrace, as my friend, Mr. Zimmer, would have us placed. He seems to insinuate by his remarks that we came home for no other motive than that prompted by love for our Captain. He ignores the fact that we, by our actions, demand our rights under any circumstances.

Should Company "D" not have the right to demand their leader as well as any other company in the Third Regiment?

If Captain Feland did by his conduct, cause the Executive of Kentucky, to take from him the Captaincy of our Company, is that any reason that this same Executive did his duty by appointing Capt. Gaines? We do not deny his right, but, as long as Liberty reigns we have had some voice in the matter. I do not profess to know anything of Capt. Noel Gaines, but were he as "chaste as snow, as pure as ice" I for one, could not and would not of my own free will consent to serve under his leadership, unless he was elected by a majority of the brave boys who compose his company.

The boys that thought this, and returned home, stand ready, willing and anxious to go wherever ordered, if they shall be allowed to name the man who shall lead them.

As to Lieut. R. C. Payne, I wish to say that there is not a single member of Company D, now encamped at Lexington, that bears more love, respect or appreciation for him, than I. I understand his situation fully, he has been my associate, superior in rank and esteemed friend for some time past, and my wish is, that he may readily climb the ladder of fame, and that his life be but the pathway of roses. But, there are ties dearer than these, which demand my liberty.

"A MEMBER OF CO. D., THIRD REGIMENT."

Mr. T. J. Williams left on the 5:13 train last night for Lexington with a squad of ten new recruits for the company that takes the place of the Hopkinsville company in the Third Regiment. Transportation was sent for these men by Lieutenant Payne yesterday. Those who pass the physical examination will be mustered at once and will move with the regiment probably the latter part of the week. Those who accompanied Williams, were:

Judson Couch, Jr., Jas. Wootton, Jessup Tandy, Howard Bush, Jas.

Hern, Jr., Pete McGrath, Burt Neff, Eugene Graves, Tom J. Williams, Dave Berry.

Mr. George E. Gary, of this city, who was formerly a resident of Bowling Green and a friend of Col. T. J. Smith, of the Third Regiment, has received the following telegram from that gentleman:

Lexington, Ky.,
Geo. E. Gary, Hopkinsville, Ky.
—Expect to complete muster by Wednesday night.

T. J. SMITH.

The second call of the President for volunteers has given additional interest to local military matters. Already there is talk among the young men of organizing a company and offering its services to the Governor. It will be composed of all the members of the late company D who still remain in the city and many young men of previous military experience and the highest connections. If the company is organized and is allowed to choose its own officers it will eclipse any company in the Kentucky Volunteers in the quality of its material. At present Capt. Feland holds a commission empowering him to recruit and organize a company of State Guards. Capt. Feland will probably not enter upon the work and will resign in favor of some other gentleman. The preliminary steps have already been taken looking to the company's organization.

HERE AND THERE.

—Cream Bread at Miller's Bakery. The best on earth. Tel. 159.

McKee has plenty of fine sweet potato slips.

The new company that takes the place of Co. D in the Third Regiment is made up mostly of Carlisle people and will be known as the Carlisle company. Hopkinsville is not in it.

—Now is the time you want hot Rolls for supper. Tel. 159. MILLER'S BAKERY.

Mr. Harry P. Weeks, for the past year stenographer in the master-mechanic's office at the Illinois Central shops, at Paducah, has resigned his position and will leave at once for the Klondike gold regions.

—Strawberries, fresh from the vine, at Reeves'.

Col. John C. Wickliffe, a former Kentuckian, has made up a regiment of Louisiana immunes, and will be sent to Cuba soon. Col. Wickliffe comes of a Kentucky family of Wickliffes noted for their fighting qualities.

—String beans, peas, cucumbers, radishes, beets, tomatoes and new cabbage just received at Reeves'.

C. W. Wilhoyte, of the wholesale grocery firm of Wilhoyte, Barrett & Co., of Owensboro, was thrown from his buggy Tuesday evening and instantly killed, his neck being broken. He was exercising a thoroughbred mare which became frightened at some peafowls and ran off. Mr. Wilhoyte was one of the best known men in his section. He was unmarried and about 45 years old.

—Cabbage, potato and tomato plants at Reeves'.

The mayor of Owensboro has notified all dog owners that on June 1, all dogs not wearing the regulation brass collar, showing that the tax had been paid, would be killed, and he says he is going to enforce the dog ordinance without favor. It is estimated that there are over 2,500 dogs in the city of Owensboro, but up to the present the tax has been paid on only about twenty-five dogs.

—Two-pound can extra choice SAVANILLA coffee for 50c at Reeves'.

James Macrae, white, and George White, colored, were arrested by City Marshal Pickering and Officer Small, says the Clarksville Times, on the charge of stealing a cow from John White, a planter of the Garrettsburg neighborhood, in Kentucky, and driving the animal to the city for the ostensible purpose of selling it. The men were locked up pending an investigation of the matter, and the cow was placed in a stable. Larceny and bringing stolen property into the State are the charges preferred against them. —All vegetables guaranteed at Reeves'.

city yesterday after an illness of several weeks of pneumonia. Mrs. Wolfe was forty years of age and a lady of many noble and lovable traits and Christian character. The funeral and interment will take place to-day at the family home.

A Point Raised.

"Capt. Noel Gaines is rapidly recruiting the Hopkinsville company. He has gotten twenty men from Frankfort, and hopes to have the company full to-day."

Begging the pardon of our esteemed Lexington contemporary which publishes the above, and our more esteemed Hopkinsville contemporary which reproduces it, we would rise to remark that "Capt. Noel Gaines is not recruiting any Hopkinsville company." We insist upon our point.
